Water Rate Here Is Held Reasonable

Report Reveals Only Nine Southland Cities Charge Big Consumers Less

Only 10 cities in Southern California have a lower rate for water used for irrigation purposes than Sierra Madre, according to a report submitted to the City Council on Wednesday night by City Business Manager Al S. Myers. A demand for a reduction in the rates from 5 to 3½ cents a cubic foot, presented to the Council at a previous meeting by E. Waldo Ward, local citrus grower and manufacturer, called forth the report. The council had referred the demand to Myers for information that might be considered in connection with Mr. Ward's proposal.

In his communication Mr. Ward intimated that the water charge in this city is probably the highest of any in Los Angeles County, and cited other districts where water consumers are paying considerably less. San Fernando Valley water users, he asserted, are paying only one and one-half cents per 100 cubic feet, and pointed out that Monrovia and Arcadia are both under the five-cent rate.

"I am compelled to ask for this reduction," Mr. Ward said, "because my orchards have lost me an average of $100 per month for the last 30 months, and $3000 in two and one-half years. It is impossible to continue without the State taking my property."

According to the report of City Manager Myers, the Sierra Madre rate of $16.55 per 30,000 cubic feet is much lower than that of the majority of cities in Southern California. It shows that out of 43 cities in Los Angeles County only nine have a cheaper water than this city. All of the foothill districts, with the exception of Monrovia and Arcadia, have a higher rate, the rate in Monrovia being barely below that of Sierra Madre.

Based on a total of 30,000 cubic feet of water consumed, comparative figures indicate that the average water rate paid in 43 cities in this county is $25.01. East Pasadena pays $31.45; Alhambra $35.35; La Canada $45.05; Azusa $18.30; Glendora $35.40; Upland $40.45; Pomona $27.07; Covina $17.65; El Monte $25.00; Anaheim $30.25; Compton $23.50.

The only cities in the county reporting a lower rate than Sierra Madre are: Monrovia $16.00; San Fernando Valley, Los Angeles No. 4, $16.00; San Fernando Valley, Los Angeles No. 5, $10.80; San Fernando Valley, Los Angeles No. 6 (gravity) $5.40; Colton $15.59; Michillinda $15.20; San Gabriel $13.60; Montebello $13.57; Arcadia $9.70; Sunnyslope $7.84.

"It will be noted," Mr. Myers said in his report, "that in the cities where the lower rate prevails, they are not confronted with the problems that exist in Sierra Madre. In every case they are situated in comparatively level territories with little or no varying elevations, thus enabling them to distribute water at a very low cost. The extreme elevations in Sierra Madre are what add materially to the pumping costs here."

Install Officers Of The Woman's Club At A Garden Party

At the lovely installation ceremony Wednesday afternoon in the gardens of the Club, Mrs. Grace Y. Hudson, District Federation President, gave praise to the outgoing President of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, Miss Edna Green and her board, and welcomed the incoming President, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, with her board members.

A resume of the activities of the retiring officers was given, and appreciation was expressed for their faithful service during the last year.

Mrs. Steinberger welcomed the audience, presented the new board members and committee chairmen, and made announcements of the policy of the club for the coming year.

Local Man Stops Girl From Jumping Off Cliff At Beach

While out for a Sunday drive near the Santa Monica Palisades, Mr. and Mrs. R. Osterhout, of West Central avenue, noticed a young woman climbing over a fence guarding an overhanging cliff. Mr. Osterhout stopped his car and rushed to the railing in time to grab her as she was about to throw herself over the cliff onto the rocks hundreds of feet below. They turned her over to the Santa Monica police for observation.

Our Flag

BY MARY WARD

We salute our flag with reverence true,
Whose colors flame, red, white and blue
With dyes as strong as patriots' love,
While freedom's emblem floats above
Our well loved country bravely won
By strife and bloodshed. May the sun
Never dawn while valiant men
Cease to be as brave as when
They wrested freedom for their own,
And civic pride in us was sown.
Hail to heroes superfine
Who won for us bright FREEDOM'S sign.

Sierra Madre Goes On The Air Sunday

Plans Completed For Presentation Of Program Boosting Community

Absence of verbose announcements advertising Sierra Madre's charms will not prevent the city's radio program over Glendale station KIRV Sunday afternoon from effectually publicizing the foothill community. The program which commences at 2 o'clock, will be opened by a reading of the short lyric poem, "Wistaria," by Pearl Virginia Steinberger. Theme music throughout the hour will be furnished by Miss Roberta Scott, pianist, and Miss Lalla Fagg, violinist.

Leroy Sullivan, Ted Lewis, Madge Lewis will contribute vocal and instrumental numbers. Last on the program will be a presentation of John Copeland's one-act romantic comedy, "A Poet Loves a Lady," which will include in its cast Miss Treva Scott, Selwyn Myers and Gilbert Somner.

Canyon Park Suit Over Assessments Is Called To Trial

Trial of the suit of Canyon Park property owners to restrain the City of Sierra Madre from collecting assessments levied against their properties to pay for the paving of Canyon streets and roads began yesterday in the Superior Court. The property owners contend that annual payments assessed against them are in excess of the amount actually required to meet annual bond payments.

The city is contending that it is necessary to fix an amount somewhat in excess of the amount apparently owing by each property owner in order to secure an amount sufficient to meet the annual payments in the event that some of the lot owners default in their payments.

The case was reached late yesterday in Judge Westover's court and will probably be resumed this afternoon.

All Stores To Close On Fourth Of July

There will be no public observance of Independence Day in Sierra Madre beyond the closing of all of the business houses excepting the Drug Stores and Service Stations next Tuesday. Also there will, of course, be no mail delivery.

Suspect Wanted By Hollywood Police Is Arrested Here

MANY NOTED CHESS EXPERTS LEND COLOR TO GREATEST OF MORPHY DAY CARNIVALS HERE

MANY celebrities of the chess world came to Sierra Madre on Saturday for the fourth annual Morphy Day Chess Carnival, played in the Park House. The event brought out a larger attendance and a greater number of entries than any of the three previous held here.

Commencing at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, the contest of wits continued keenly on until almost midnight. Among the satellites on hand to lend interest and sectional color to the games were Former World's Champion Jose Capablanca, the former champion of Ohio, Irving Spero, of Los Angeles; Dr. R. B. Griffith of Los Angeles, Southern California Champion; Henry MacMahon, editor of the magazine National

Water Line Is Threat To City Growth

Council Warned Plans For Boulder Dam Conduit May Tie Its Hands

Danger that plans of the Metropolitan Water District for piping Colorado River water through Sierra Madre may seriously interfere with the growth and development of the city is pointed out to the City Council by Walter Wright Alley, of 390 East Central avenue, president of the Sierra Madre Library Board. In a recent letter to the Council written following a survey made here by its engineers, the water district announced where and how it proposed to lay its conduit, to be covered by only four feet of earth.

It is this latter provision to which Mr. Alley takes particular exception, urging that it may seriously interfere with the plans of utility companies or of the city itself as the municipality grows and the necessity for additional conduits arises. The Council has expressed to Mr. Alley appreciation for the thought he has given the matter, assuring him that the plans of Pasadena and the Metropolitan district will be carefully inquired into before any rights of way are granted here. Mr. Alley's communication follows:

"The Pasadena Water Department has, or is about to make, application to the City Council for permission to lay a conduit in Sierra Madre to carry water to the Pine Canyon Dam to the City of Pasadena. This conduit is to extend from the east boundary to the west boundary of our city. It is contemplated that this conduit will ultimately be transferred to the Metropolitan Water District to convey the Colorado River water, on their so-called 'high line,' from storage in the Pine Canyon reservoir to the upper tier of cities of the District.

"It is my understanding that this conduit, as proposed to be constructed, is 10 feet in diameter and to be laid in our streets approximately four feet below existing street surfaces. (Continued on Page Five)

PTA Asks Members To Volunteer For Committee Places

A call for volunteers to serve on its various committees was issued at the first meeting of the new board of directors of the Parent-Teachers Association at the home of Mrs. Warren O. Preston on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Preston entertained the board at a garden tea and plans for the coming year's work were discussed and name suggested for the various committee assignments. Members of the association, having an especial interest in any particular endeavor of the organization are urged to come forward and volunteer their services for places on the committees whose work is most attractive to them.

New Postal Rates In Effect Tomorrow

New letter postage rate of two cents will go into effect tomorrow, it was announced this week by Mrs. Jessica H. Wright, local postmistress.

"This means," Mrs. Wright stated, "that all letters mailed in Sierra Madre for delivery in Sierra Madre can be mailed for two cents. All letters mailed here and addressed to places outside the jurisdiction of Sierra Madre Post Office must carry three cents postage, as now."

Post card and private mailing card rates remain unchanged from the one cent rate now prevailing. Letters mailed for local delivery at the two cent rate, if forwarded to another postoffice, will be charged with one cent postage due, to be collected from the addressee.

Free Swims Will Be Provided Children By Kiwanis Club

Local Kiwanians will play the Good Samaritan to scores of Sierra Madre children this summer, by providing them with free swimming privileges and other forms of outdoor recreation, according to plans just announced by Vice-President John L. Woehler.

Commencing tomorrow, and continuing through the summer months, every Saturday will be Kiwanis Swim Day at the Canyon Park Swimming pool. All boys and girls under the age of 12, who are unable to pay their own admission charges, will be given free access to the pool. Tickets may be procured at Mid-dough's Drug Store or from James Heasley at the swimming pool. Dr. E. L. Jackson and Dr. M. H. A. Petersen will also have tickets for distribution.

Children applying for tickets must present a signed statement from their parents stating that they are not in a position to pay for this privilege themselves.

Woehler To Be New Head Of Kiwanis

As the Kiwanis International convention opened in Los Angeles this week, announcement was made that President William J. Lawless of the Sierra Madre Club would tender his resignation at the next club meeting here. Members of the club's board of directors had been apprised of Mr. Lawless' determination to retire from all possible activities. He has spent much of his time during the last two months in a Glendale sanitarium and believes that the club's affairs should be directed by someone capable of presiding at the weekly club meetings. The directors are said to have unanimously agreed upon Dr. John L. Woehler, vice-president, as the successor of Mr. Lawless.

It was good to be a Kiwanian this week, for the justifiable pride that comes to one belonging to that world renowned service institution was dramatically and eloquently expressed at the international convention of the organization which concluded on Wednesday at Los Angeles.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

HERE'S why there was such a heavy vote for horse racing. People said: "Why go to Caliente to get skinned. Trade at home."

People are in the mood now to kick off all the lids, even those which should be clamped on. The lesson of which should be that it never pays to clamp lids on too tight—it always results in a mood like this—always has—all through history. But the people in the lid-clamping business won't ever learn that.

The Glorious Fourth is coming. But we who live in fire-hazard territory have to go to a foreign country to celebrate it in the good old-fashioned way.

City Votes For Liquor, Race Pools, Roosters, Tax Plan And Against Cat Licenses

Bond Issue For Unemployment Relief Gets Biggest Majority Given Any Proposal And Exemption Of Private Schools From Taxation Loses By Margin Of Two Votes—

SIERRA MADRE voted almost two to one for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment on Tuesday's election, cast an almost equally decisive vote against the licensing of cats and the banishment of roosters, rolled up a big majority in favor of horse race pools and recorded itself emphatically against the diversion of gasoline tax funds to the general expenses of government.

A majority of two votes was given against Proposition No. 4, providing for the exemption from State taxation of non-profit private schools, the vote being 581 for and 583 against.

Whereas the city gave a majority of 404 votes for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, the Riley-Stewart taxation plan against which there was little if any organized opposition, carried here by only 156 votes, the vote being 600 for and 444 against.

Curiously enough more local residents concerned themselves about the legalization of horse race betting than about the new taxation scheme that will affect every citizen, the Eighteenth Amendment or any other subject upon which they were called to pass judgment. The greatest number of ballots were marked on this issue—1188, of which 748 favored the sale of race pools and 433 opposed, the majority being 315. Only 1044 recorded themselves for or against the taxation plan.

Proposition No. 4 attracted the second highest number of voters, 1164 recording themselves on this issue, while Proposition No. 2, proposing a $20,000,000 bond issue for relief of the unemployed was marked by 1083 voters—824 in favor of and 259 against. Yet the majority of 565 in favor of this proposition was the greatest given on any subject.

A majority of 338 against the banishment of roosters was recorded in the municipal election, while an even greater majority—477 was cast against the licensing of cats.

The total vote of 1182 cast on the liquor question fell 561 short of the number cast for and against repeal of the Wright Act last November 11, when the city gave a majority of only 197 in favor of wiping the State prohibition enforcement act off the statute books. In the November election, of course, a President was chosen, besides a United States Senator, Congressman and members of the Legislature and 21 propositions appeared on the ballot. A total of 1743 votes were cast for and against repeal of the Wright Act—970 for and 773 against.

Letters From News Readers

READERS PLEASED WITH NEWS ATTITUDE

To the Editor,
Sierra Madre News:

Whether local Propositions No. 1 and No. 2 pass or not, at the election on Tuesday, June 27th, we wish to commend The News on the dignified and diplomatic manner in which it has conducted the "Rooster and Cat License campaign" by publishing letters received from both sides on these issues. Surely The News has strengthened the good will of old friends and made many new ones by its attitude.

We also want to thank The News for the splendid article "Purpose and Effect of 10 State Ballot Propositions Analyzed by an Expert," by E. W. Camp. The 10 State Propositions are explained in a condensed clear manner, and are a great help to those of us who have not the time to wade through long arguments on each subject in trying to decide how to vote intelligently next Tuesday.

All Sierra Madreans must appreciate the fact that we have an exceptionally well edited local newspaper and the least we can do to show our appreciation is to support it in every way possible by advertisements, new subscriptions and reporting local news events.

Sincerely,

SIX NEWS READERS.

CAST A BALLOT WITH A CLEAR CONSCIENCE

To the Editor of The
Sierra Madre News:

Thanks to The News I was able to go to the polls this morning with a clear conscience. I had read the synopsis of the ten State ballot propositions you published last week and felt I was able to pass intelligently on the issues, most of which were vital to the welfare of the State. I had not had the opportunity before to wade through all the propaganda for and against each of the propositions and to form an intelligent opinion regarding some of them. No citizen has a right to pass upon questions that are so important to all of the people without knowing the effect his ballot will have. The article prepared for your readers by Judge Camp was concise and clear enough for even a child to understand, besides being one that did not require much time to read and less to study. There was no excuse for a single citizen here not to have a thorough understanding of the duty before him. It was a distinct service to the community that I personally know many local residents besides myself highly appreciated.

W. H. DENTON.

WHAT UNEMPLOYED MEN HERE ARE DOING

To the Editor of

The Sierra Madre News:

During the present time of depression, only a few people of this city are familiar with the activities of the Unemployed Relief Association, local unit of the unemployed. These activities cover a wide field, such as the baking of over 400 loaves of bread per week, hauling and supplying surplus whole milk at cost price, cultivation of three gardens comprising 12 acres of land, as well as the regular plan of trading labor for produce.

The Association is supplying food to an average of 108 families per week, in return for 16 hours of labor given to the association. Resumption of welfare work has made necessary a ruling that welfare cases are ineligible to draw rations during the period they are working, but again become eligible when their welfare work ceases and they have given the requisite 16 hours to the association.

Through the cooperation of several of the local professional men and tradesmen, the association has been able to supply medical and barber service to working members. Credit for this should be given to Drs. Gossard, Jackson, Groth and Brown, as well as George Poulter.

The Honor Roll of those who have cooperated with the association is such a long one as to make publication impossible. The Association wishes at this time to express its appreciation to the Firemen who are turning over half the proceeds of their dance, to the unemployed.

Head Of Convent Here For Six Years Goes To East Coast

Sister Superior Emiliana, of St. Rita's Convent, left this week for San Francisco to visit her father and mother until July 10, when she will return to Sierra Madre for a few hours visit before leaving for the Mother House in Brighton, Mass.

Sister Emiliana has been sister superior of the local convent for the past six years and has become endeared to the hearts of all who came in contact with her and the wonderful work she has accomplished here. She has served the Order of Sisters of St. Joseph for the past 32 years. Sister Isadore, pioneer, who opened St. Rita's Convent here nine years ago, is accompanying Sister Emiliana. She will return in the fall with a new superior, Sister Emmiliana's term having expired.

MISS Alberta E. Dow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Dow, of Corte Calla street, East Pasadena, became the bride of Merle A. Grant, of the U.S.S. Pennsylvania, on Saturday, June 17, at 3 p.m. at a beautiful ceremony at the chapel of the First Congregational Church. Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard officiated.

Following a short honeymoon in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Grant are making their home at 46 East Highland avenue. Mrs. Grant was a graduate of John Muir Technical High School. She has resided in Sierra Madre for the past two and a half years. Mr. Grant is formerly of Fairbault, Minn.

SCOUT TROOP WANTS BUGLES AND DRUMS

Bugles and drums are in demand by Troop One, Sierra Madre Boy Scouts. A once plentiful supply of the instruments appear to have gone astray. It is the desire of the troop members to round up as many of them formerly in their possession as possible. Any one knowing of a bugle or drum that could be returned is requested to report to Scoutmasters W. R. Morgan or Ray Hudson. Donations of either or both instruments will be gladly accepted.

A quiet ceremony united in marriage Miss Elsie Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Shaw, and Joseph Weiss, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Stoppel, of 167 East Mira Monte avenue, on Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 651 Sacramento avenue, Altadena.

Gowned in a traveling suit of gray with blue accessories, the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Dave Goodman, as matron of honor. Ruben Weiss served his brother as best man. An informal reception at the Airport Club Gardens, Glendale, followed the ceremony at which 15 relatives of the young couple were present. A formal reception to which 200 guests are bidden will be held next Sunday, July 2, at the home of the bride's parents in Altadena.

Mrs. Weiss is a prominent member of the "Ultra" Club of Pasadena. Mr. Weiss is president of the Aleph Zadick Aleph and a member of the Sigma Tau Epsilon. He is a graduate of Pasadena Junior College and is employed in the advertising department of the Alhambra Post-Advocate. He was for sometime connected with The Sierra Madre News.

The young couple left for a week's honeymoon. They will be at home in Alhambra after July 4.

Honoring Charles Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hull, of 540 West Montecito avenue, a surprise birthday dinner party was given at his home on Wednesday evening. Twenty young people from Pasadena and Sierra Madre were present.

Honoring the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. R. Moote, of 689 West Central avenue, the Frederic S. Ackley and the R. S. Jensen families surprised the Moores at their home last Thursday evening.

The Social Club of the Order of Eastern Star, was entertained on Monday at the home of Mrs. Clarence Noshier, East Laurel avenue. Refreshments were served following a most enjoyable evening.

A surprise birthday party, honoring Miss Cynthia J. Hull, of West Montecito avenue, was given last Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Wheeling, 101 East Central avenue. Twenty-five young people enjoyed a bicycle ride through Sierra Madre as diversion for the evening.

Miss Cricket Calkin of West Grandview avenue was hostess Thursday evening at a picnic supper, to members and escorts of Tau Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Justine Marguerite Picton, of 183 East Laurel avenue, and Cecil Ernest Hall, of the U.S.S. Utah, was solemnized at 8 p.m. on Saturday at St. Rita's Church by Rev. Father Hyacinth Clarey.

The bride was gown in white satin and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Miss Celeste Nucio, of San Marino, attended the bride, and Johnnie Cowan of the U.S.S. Utah served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception for the young folks was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Carpenter at their home in San Gabriel. The couple will make their home in Sierra Madre.

Communities Must Match Federal Aid

State Funds For Unemployed Relief Will Also Be Measured By Rule

A very interesting communication from R. C. Branton, Chairman of the State Emergency Relief Administration, with headquarters at Sacramento, has been received by Assemblyman F. G. Martin, of Altadena, in which Mr. Branton details what has been received for aid by California from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and what is to be expected in future. Text of Mr. Branton's letter, in part, is as follows:

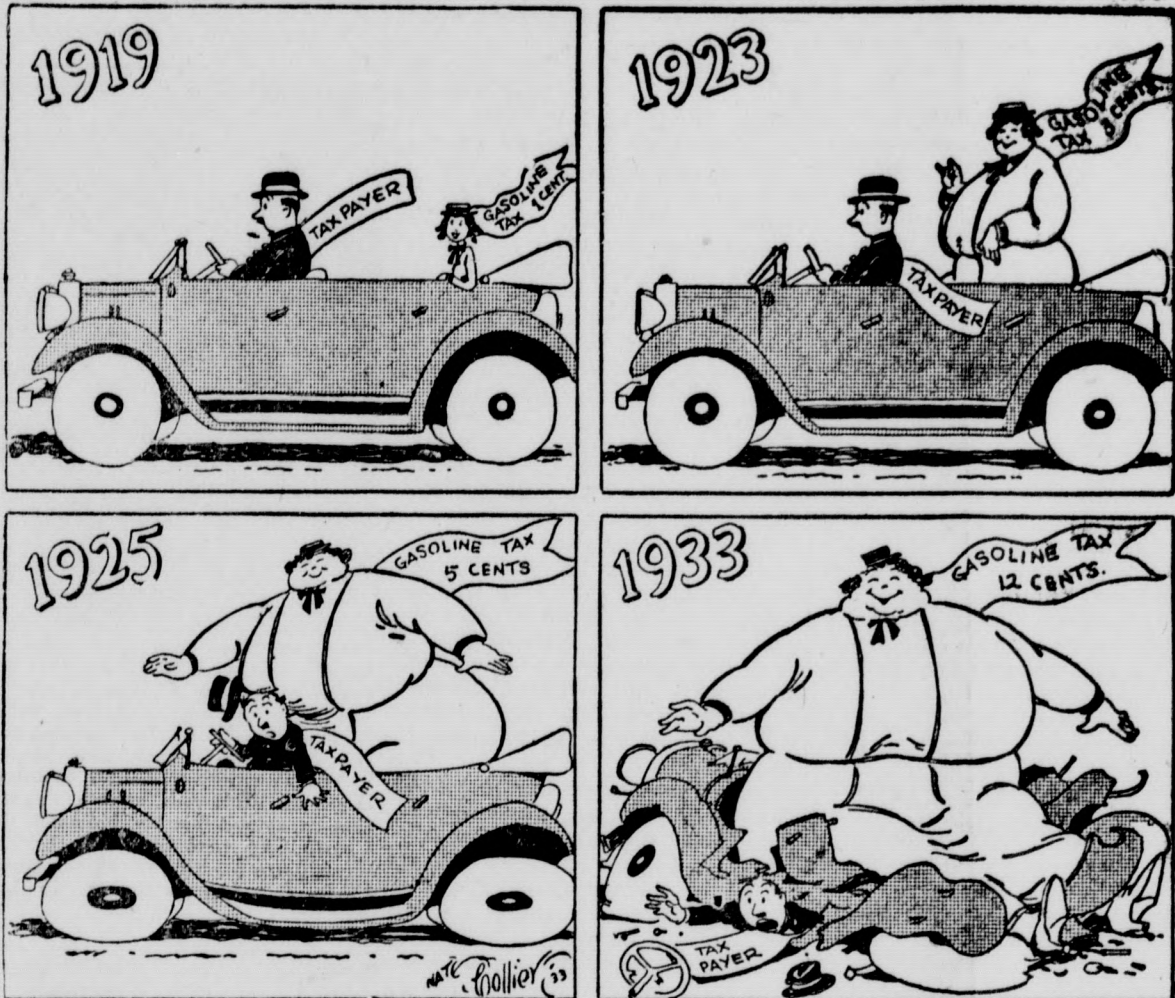

"Knowing the intense interest of the members of the Legislature in measures looking toward the relief of distress among our California people, I am taking the liberty of sending you a copy of the Wagner-Lewis Bill which was passed by both houses of Congress and is now known as the Federal Emergency Relief Act of 1933.

"As you are aware, it has been necessary for the State during the past six months to make application to the Federal Government for aid to supplement local county funds for the relief of destitution in 33 counties.

"The amounts already received from the Federal Government, under the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932 amounting to $9,800,259 and under the terms of the new Federal Emergency Relief Act of 1933, $1,317,867.

"In order to carry through the month of June we are making application for additional amounts. There is no doubt that it will be necessary for the State to secure funds from the Federal Government for the relief of distress and hardship due to unemployment during the fiscal year 1933-34. How much Federal aid it will be possible for us to secure will be determined in a large measure by the amount of money expended from public funds within the State during each quarter.

"You, of course, are thoroughly familiar with the Emergency Relief Bond Act (Senate Bill 300) which is to be made effective by vote of the people on June 27. These State funds will be made available to extend the credit of counties and municipalities in accordance with the terms of the Act. The counties should make a complete provision if they possibly can to meet the emergency needs during the coming year.

"As stated by the President upon the occasion of his signing the Federal aid bill, 'Federal funds are made available to supplement rather than to supplant local funds.'

"During the past three years the amount of money made available by volunteer contributions to private agencies for relief purposes has diminished rapidly and the burden is becoming more and more the responsibility of public agencies.

"As with the State, so also the county will be in a position to receive State and Federal aid only to the extent that they make provision from local public funds to meet the needs of the distressed people in their communities.

"This communication is sent to you for your information and such use as you care to make of it in your contact with those dealing with this problem in your county."

Ban On Fireworks Sticks Here As Some Towns Permit Them

Several foothill and San Gabriel Valley cities have raised the ban on firecrackers and fireworks this year, but Sierra Madre is not among them. The fact that the Angelus forest is right at the city line caused the local authorities to heed the protest of the Federal forest service against letting down the bars and endangering the watershed. Also the fact that recent reductions in the local insurance rate were in part influenced by the fact that fireworks are not permitted here, was considered.

Chief W. D. Richards of the local fire department issued a warning to parents that homemade cannons annually take as toll eyes and fingers and are urgently requested not to allow their children to use gun powder. Even the harmless sparkler is a fire hazard, when carelessly thrown away.

FARE REDUCTION IS SOUGHT BY THE ESPEE

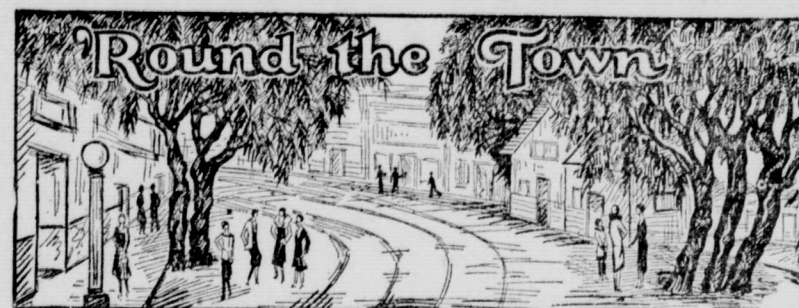

Permission to reduce fares 45 per cent for coach and tourist sleeper travel between all stations on its Pacific Lines has been requested by the Southern Pacific Company in applications to the Interstate Commerce Commission and various state commissions, it was announced here today.

The proposed tariff would establish a basic one-way rate of two cents a mile for such transportation, as compared with the present first-class rate of 3.6 cents a mile, and with approval will be made effective July 1, according to Felix S. McGinnis, vice president in charge of system passenger traffic.

As now planned, it was stated, the low-fare program provides for a 90-day experimental period, at the end of which it will be made permanent if patronage warrants such action.

ELECTRICIANS FEE IS HELD EXCESSIVE

W. J. Ropp and J. C. Rogers, Sierra Madre's two electrical contractors, have petitioned the City Council for a reduction in the annual electricians' license fee. The fee is fixed by ordinance at $50 for the protection of home electricians. This, the home contractors say, is excessive. They ask that it be reduced one-half.

Sensational Acts Secured For Great Show On The Fourth

With the signing of several new and sensational acts for the circus part of the program, the Pasadena Firemen have lined up what they believe will be the greatest show yet produced. This show which takes place yearly at the Pasadena Rose Bowl is staged in two separate parts, a mammoth 3-ring circus followed immediately by an hour of fireworks, both shows for the one price of admission. The show will start promptly at 8 o'clock on the evening of July 4th.

In support of the Novikoff Troupe of sensational aerial artists, formerly with the Ringling and Barnum and Bailey shows, are Johnnie Agee's famous horses who will perform in the center ring. Pauline Loretta who is billed as America's incomparable lady gymnast, Goebel's troupe of trained African lions, and 20 other daring and sensational acts. Starting with an aerial salute of 21 guns and ending with the grand fireworks spectacle "The Bulldogs of the Navy," the pyrotechnical display embraces many wonderful and brilliant set pieces in addition to the salvos of multi-burst shells, glittering cascades of vari-colored lights, batteries of giant rockets and many other novel and entertaining features. This display alone will be well worth the price of admission taking over an hour in itself.

Tickets for this mammoth show are now on sale at all Pasadena fire stations, at the Sierra Madre Fire Department, or may be bought at the Rose Bowl the night of the Fourth.

AGRICULTURE INCREASES THE TAXABLE WEALTH

A Rich Harvest. Inset: Typical Small-Farm Home.

That agriculture in Los Angeles County is in a healthy condition is best indicated by Federal figures representing the last ten years which show that in 1920 investment in agriculture in this county amounted to $384,460,437 and yielded an income of $70,504,423, while in 1930 the investment was $487,277,035 and yielded an income of $93,146,844.

The agricultural income each year, close to $400,000,000, is a supporting factor of great value. It comes from points outside of California and is new money.

The United States Census shows that Los Angeles County has maintained first place in income and investment in agriculture throughout the last decade. The Agricultural Department of the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce continuously assists in developing this new wealth.

Also the Agricultural Department provides a consulting advisory service valuable alike to those considering agriculture here and those developing already existing agricultural industries. This service, through personal contacts, by telephone inquiries and thousands of letters cannot be readily estimated in actual money. Its purpose is to properly place people on the land so that they may succeed and to see that agricultural activities keep pace with other rapid expansions of the county. Agricultural money returns are a prime factor in the stability and prosperity of our county. The future of Los Angeles County for land settlement in small acre farms as homes for workers and for retired people with small incomes, has led the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce to feature this opportunity extensively.

LOCAL MAN INVENTS WATER HEATER THAT WINS ATTENTION

A new semi-automatic instantaneous water heater, invented by F. W. Schialos of 546 Sturtevant Drive, now being exhibited in Los Angeles, is attracting widespread attention among engineers of the heating companies and manufacturers of household necessities.

Designed for use where those of larger capacity are not required, or are found too expensive to operate, Mr. Schialos believes that his product will meet the demand for a heater that is low in price and capable of furnishing hot water the instant it is needed.

The new device may be installed in the wall or in a special cabinet attached thereto, thus saving floor space. The gas shuts off simultaneously with the water, and when the pilot is turned off, the gas valve automatically locks. Mr. Schialos has one of the heaters in full operation at his residence for demonstration purposes.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

ALTHOUGH the crowd at the dance last Saturday was no comparison to our Christmas Dances, those that attended seemed to enjoy it to the utmost. 'Twas a simple matter to raise funds for an extra hour of dancing.

There were many fine looking ladies at the dance and among the foremost of these were the wives of the firemen. Not only did our ladies look nice, but they did their bit to try and make the dance an enjoyable one for all.

It's wonderful the way the few members of the "Southwest Corner" retain their interest in their most popular pastime. This meeting, held before and after our regular main meetings, is attended by the faithful few and despite the effort required at times, the old original membership continues. Marion Hayes is the latest member of the Southwest Corner and was readily chosen because of his kind disposition and slow decision.

During the most interesting moments of last Friday's meeting when all hands were on edge a small black cat came sailing through the door from sources unknown. And the cat was short of a license tag, too. No one seemed to know what a black cat spells gloom, but after the arrival of this unexpected visitor the gathering lost interest until the cats were produced when the black cat hoodoo was soon forgotten!

'Twas 2:30 in the morning when Jim Heasley pulled out a cigarette but when he reached for a match, not a match was in his pockets. In despair, he searched the City Hall over, finally taking the drawers of Joe Swanson's desk. "Ah-h-h!" says James as he spied a package of what appeared to be one of those paper ones. Opening it up he tore one of the matches off and rubbed and rubbed but no light. "Whatda hell?" thought he as he read on the package. "Individual Rouge" it read. Was his face red? And now we know why Joe always has such nice red cheeks.

A fireman once tried very hard to get out. But the look on "her" face expressed much doubt. So he pulled, "there's a fire!" But she said, "You're a squire. You'll stay here my dear boy, that 'Fire's Out'."

A. L. A. Activities

By Dorothy Shetter

PROCEEDS of the benefit dance for the Boy Scouts sponsored by the D.U.V.C.W. and the A.L.A. several weeks ago at the Woman's Clubhouse amounted to $34.09, half of which is credited to the A.L.A. Again both organizations thank all those that helped make this affair a success.

On Saturday afternoon July 1st the Juniors will hold their regular meeting in the City Hall basement. President M. Stinman requests that every girl that wore a poppy costume on Poppy Day, either wear it or bring it, as she plans to take pictures of the entire sales group.

Results of a Nation-wide membership round-up being conducted by the National Auxiliary will be announced July 8, when Mrs. S. Alford Blackburn, National president, will speak on a Nation radio broadcast. This roundup, extending from June 25th to July 4th, will conclude the 1933 membership efforts.

Last Thursday night the A.L.A. met in the Legion Headquarters for their regular semi-monthly meeting. A good sized crowd was on hand to nominate delegates and alternates for the State Convention in Pasadena. Delegates nominated were Leila Embree, Edith Woodruff and Maybelle Barker. Alternates—Helen, or should we say Antonio Lovejoy, Arcelia Stinman and Elizabeth Steinberger. The nominations will be held open until the next A.L.A. meeting July 13, when the election will take place.

The following members have been designated to serve as ushers at the Convention: Bertha Irvine, Kathryn Miller and Dorothy Shetter.

Three members went through the initiation ceremony. Those taking part in the ritual were President Barker, 1st Vice-President Elizabeth Goodier, 2nd Vice-President Leila Embree, Past President Louise Roe, Chaplain Kitty Miller and Sergeant-at-Arms D. Shetter.

So now Leona High, Sylvia Quittner and Bertha Irvine are full-fledged members.

Maubelle Barker and Helen Fleming presided as hostesses and everyone was pleased with the "me n'u." After we had dined, a circle was formed and a clever stunt was next. President Barker composed an ode to the active members, with each person in the game supplying the descriptive adjectives from a number of printed slips. The descriptions of all of us were hilarious, nonsensical and once in awhile we felt we were hit a little too truthfully.

Lucille Pickett has been on the list of shut-ins for quite a spell now. No, Lucille isn't sick, but she surely is sick of sickness. Marjorie is the patient at present. She is trying to avoid having some mastoid trouble.

entrants participated in a rapid transit contest, conducted by Charles Broughton, who also furnished the prize. The winner was Myer Schleifer. N. Richardson was runner-up.

Following the afternoon program, supper was served to all the contestants by the ladies of the Congregational Church. A. V. Taylor, of Pasadena, took this occasion to present former City Judge C. W. Forman with a valuable chess book in appreciation of Mr. Forman's work in establishing the annual Morphy Day Carnival.

L. H. Heath, of Sierra Madre, started the evening events by introducing Mr. Taylor as master of ceremonies. Mr. Taylor presented Mayor H. C. Reavis, R. C. Copenhagen, secretary of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, and the luminaries of the chess world who were present.

Upon completion of this formality, Dr. R. B. Griffith engaged in simultaneous play 21 boards, drawing 6 and losing 2. A match between the Automobile Club of Southern California and Alhambra concluded in a draw.

The final match brought Alfred L. Paul into competition against 5 women, with the following results: Mrs. Verna B. Richardson, 0; Mrs. Elizabeth K. Hillman, 0; Mrs. Marie Hinchman, 0; Mrs. Gerard Carter, draw, Miss Marian F. Fox, draw.

Quaint Trade Signs

Signs of all kinds were in general use by tradesmen of all classes in the days when the greater part of the population could not read or write. Some of these may still be found in odd corners of London, such as the three sugar leaves indicating a grocer's shop, and the brass dog with his head in a pot indicating a hardware store, or ironmonger's, as it is called there.

Entries already are pouring in to Jack Bradshaw, Jr., superintendent, in Los Angeles.

The economy act which will become effective today will wipe out the whole structure of veterans' legislation which has governed the compensation and care of the disabled, the widows and the fatherless children since the war. It will be necessary for the Legion and Auxiliary members engaged in the work for the welfare of disabled veterans and dependents to become familiar with the new regulations.

Modern Art Satirized By Painter Here

Opera And Fine Arts Club Of Pasadena Hears Alfred James Dewey

Forty members of the Pasadena Opera and Fine Arts Club who attended a dinner meeting of their organization at the Church-hill road studio of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knost on Friday evening, heard at a humorously satirical address by Alfred James Dewey of Sierra Madre's Art Colony on the subject of "Modern Art."

At the conclusion of an outdoor supper a program of music, art and literature with modernism as the subject was presented. Solos by La Vona Cole and Isabel Smith, with Gus Rihard accompanying, supplied the vocal modernism of the evening. Several selections of modern verse were read by Geraldine Anderson. Raymond McPeeters gave three selections which displayed modern treatment of piano compositions. Harry Ivins Hawxhurst gave a brief outline of the activities of the Sierra Madre Municipal Art League and introduced Alfred James Dewey who was the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Dewey compared modern music with modern painting and stated that the believed that the modern composer does not stand a ghost of a show with the modern artist.

"For example," he said, "an artist wishes to paint a beautiful maiden. He must paint her against a mountain. That will show the power necessary to contrast her beautiful form. Then he must have a mulberry tree that will cast a long shadow to protect the maiden's delicate color. The maiden shall be reclining on a mossy bank. The artist now is ready to paint. He does not have a maiden to model for him or a mountain or even a mulberry tree. They would blot out his vision and then where would his abstracts be? First he tears the maiden limb from limb, dislocates her jaw, makes a blimp of one of her breasts and a ping-pong ball of the other, turns her dreamy eyes into a couple of stewed prunes.

"Then he proceeds to drop a right leg at a forty-five degree angle into the shade of the mulberry tree and wrap the other around the trunk of the tree. He drapes an arm over the mountain and drops the other one beside a cactus. Leaning the head against the mulberries he twirls the auburn locks around her feet.

"He then proceeds to cut the mountain into chunks and stand them on end. He just could not acknowledge the law of gravity and have a mountain setting around right side up. He grabs the mulberry tree, jerks it out by the roots, turns it upside down with the roots in the air. With arms and legs scattered hither and yon, good old harmony shot full of holes, the law of gravity beaten to a pulp, the mutilated form of the pretty maiden stuck here and there, he stands back in admiration—gazes on a masterpiece. It is peaceful, it soothes, it reaches the soul, it sings to the downtrodden, it has a message to a stricken world, so he calls it 'Contentment.'"

The speech carried the meeting into gales of laughter. At the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey those present took a midnight jaunt to the Dewey studio to view "The First Miracle" and other works which have received much comment.

LAMB SALE SEEKS TO STRENGTHEN MARKET

Lamb, from expensive chops to economical stew, is being featured this week in all Safeway and Piggly Wiggly markets in Southern California as their part of the company-wide campaign to stimulate the sale of lamb, stabilize market, and assist the lamb growers of the West.

More than 3700 markets in 18 Western States are participating in this event, which is expected by executives of the company to excel the records set in a similar drive on lamb last year.

Legion Posts Will Put On Huge 4th Of July Spectacle

An elaborate double program is the offering of the American Legion Posts of this county, who are presenting a huge Fourth of July Pageant in the Los Angeles Coliseum starting in the evening at 8 p.m.

The first half of the bill will be devoted to a great circus featuring some of the most sensational acts obtainable. The second half of the program will be taken up entirely with a spectacular fireworks pageant which includes the very latest in aerial displays.

The program will open with a demonstration by 15 drum corps, bands and drill teams. These organizations are undergoing intensive training for the State convention of the Legion and will be in great shape for this exhibition.

Included in this group will be corps that have won National honors at previous National conventions of the Legion. Due to the courtesy of Chief of Police Roy E. Steckel all of the organizations of Los Angeles Police Post will appear. The band, directed by Harry Signor, will not only appear in the exhibition but will play for all the circus acts, while the drum corps and drill teams will march along side of such famous organizations as the Glendale, Maywood, Torrance and Los Angeles Corps.

Tons of powder, thousands of skyrocket and aerial bombs, smoke effects, shells and salutes all will be used to make the last half of this show one of the most thrilling fireworks pageants ever shown on the Pacific Coast.

An American Legion Service Department will benefit from the proceeds of this event. We have received aid from this department for a number of families during the past year. We should support this event! Secure your tickets from Sierra Madre Post No. 297. Price, adults 50 cents, children, 25c; Roy H. Pickett, chairman.

Water Line Threat To The City's Growth

The contemplated route being, from east to west, along Grand View avenue, then across city-owned and private property to the east end of Highland avenue, then along Highland avenue to the west city boundary.

"I urge that your honorable body consider very carefully two vital factors before any rights are granted to the City of Pasadena, or to the Metropolitan Water District.

"First, the route is wrong. I understand that this is to be a pressure conduit, consequently its exact location up or down the slope is not so important as would be the case if it were to be a gravity line. Therefore Sierra Madre should insist that the conduit be located at our south boundary. On the extreme east side of town, however, the conduit might be swung further to the north, entering the city south of, and close to, East Central avenue.

"The conduit, as now planned, will cut the city into two sections; that is, so far as our underground utilities are concerned. Access from the north portion to the south portion would be almost impossible. "Second, the conduit is not deep enough below the surface. The present plans, I believe, call for an average cover over the top of the 10 foot pipe of only four feet of earth. This is too shallow for the requirements of our city. This would mean that wherever the conduit is placed, all our existing or proposed large diameter north and south water pipes, storm drains, sewers, gas mains, etc., would have to be placed underneath the conduit, or at least 16 feet below existing street grades.

"In addition, many of our streets are not yet completely improved, and slight grade changes may be necessary, particularly at intersections. The location of the proposed conduit will forever prevent any such changes unless the large pipe be placed further below the surface. An earth cover of only four feet is not enough. A check should be made of what the City of Pasadena is requiring where this conduit is to cross main north and south streets containing storm drains and sewers. "A possible third factor to be taken into consideration, is that proper provision should be made that Sierra Madre, at some future date, may draw water from this conduit.

"These problems are, of course, to be solved by the technical men for the best interest of all concerned. But your honorable body should be alive to the seriousness of this situation, and be ready to stand behind our City Engineer, when he makes his recommendations."

Long Beach Families Swarm To Canyon Park With Arrival Of Summer

Sierra Madre real estate agents reported a marked increase in the number of inquiries for Sierra Madre rental property during the last few weeks and the closing of a number of leases for residential properties. There has been an influx of Long Beach residents into the Canyon Park district with the arrival of summer but many properties in the lower residential sections have also been taken.

Newcomers welcomed to Sierra Madre recently include J. L. Hansberger, of Long Beach, and his aged mother, who has passed her 92nd birthday. The Hansbergers moved here from Long Beach and are living in the B. E. Pratt cottage at 95 Vista Circle Drive.

Dr. Harry Ford Scudder, of Los Angeles, has leased the cabin at 461 Sturtevant Drive for three months. The Greenbaum cabin at 483 Sturtevant Drive has been rented by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King, of the East Long Beach Salvation Army, for the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson, of Long Beach, moved on Wednesday to 520 Audubon Way, the cottage occupied by Walter R. Carlton, Long Beach realtor. Mr. Carlton moved to make his home at 522 Woodland Drive.

Mrs. A. J. Westerfield of Texas, has taken the cottage of Mrs. Louis Straw, 582 Woodland Drive.

H. F. Cook, of Long Beach has moved to 421 Woodland Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodson, of Whittier, are residing at the Stevens cottage, 539 Brookside Lane.

Mrs. Mattie E. Byrn, of Oakland, will make her home permanently in Sierra Madre Canyon. Her son and daughter, Miss Eleanor Byrn, who graduated this month from the University of California at Berkeley, will join her here next Monday. Mrs. Byrn will be secretary to Mr. Carlton at his canyon office, 527 Woodland Drive.

A year lease has been taken by Misses Edith and Louise Howard, Pasadena school teachers, on the Arthur Carter house, 355 Alegria avenue. They will take possession July 20. With them will be their mother, Mrs. Ruth Howard.

Other newcomers are Gene Mishima, 479 North Auburn avenue; F. K. Vanzant, 383A West Central avenue, Maurica Steinbach, 327 North Lima street; J. Fugihara, 415 West Highland avenue and Ralph Cleveland, 101 North Grove street.

Good taste in the home furnishing is constantly increasing with a desire for the most beauty procurable with the material at hand.

terms for a 30-foot lot, but these small lots need more careful thought and planning for best effects just as the small room is a more difficult problem to the interior decorator than a large one with plenty of room in which to produce effects.

Planning for space in the small house is the most important prob-

MAKE YOUR GARDEN AN OUTDOOR ROOM. THE LAWN BORDERED WITH FLOWERS AND SHRUBS.

The great factor in interior decoration is the proper arrangement of the materials, their placing and grouping.

With the artistic arrangement and decoration of the interior the next and most logical step, naturally, is exterior decorating, known as landscape architecture or gardening. Rather pretentious and it is equally important in the small yard. It is useless to try to make a 30 by 50 foot back yard a miniature of a country place. First of all, in planning the small yard for most beautiful effects, it must be kept in mind that the design, to be effective, must be simple. It must also be in scale to the size of the lot. The problem is also complicated by fixed and immovable features such as walks, fences and the position of the house. The design must be fitted to them.

On the small place straight lines in design are far the best both for convenience, effect and practical purposes. Curved lines merely for the sake of a curve suggesting informality are out of place. They are an imitation of the curves of the fine informal plantings on large estates, where long straight lines would be ineffective, unnatural, and inartistic. There is no line long enough on a small lot to need the relief of a curve. The proper use of straight lines will be most effective in developing the plan of the yard. Straight lines the long way of the lot increase the appearance of depth. Transverse

Orange Proration Idea Gets Result Government Seeks

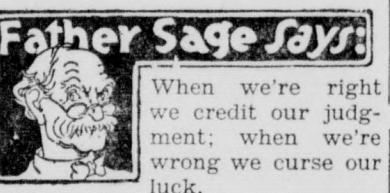

"The Valencia orange stabilization program is already bringing results, especially on loose fruit control, and there is no reason why it cannot continue and have a substantial effect on Valencia returns this season," Paul Armstrong, general manager of the California Fruit Grower's Exchange, told a large gathering of citrus growers at Chaffey Junior College auditorium last night.

The speaker outlined the setup of the proration program now in effect which was organized by the joint farm bureau stabilization committee and has the support of over 90 per cent of the Valencia crop. A distribution committee determines the quantity of fruit that can be shipped each week, and each shipper agrees to ship his prorated share, thus giving everyone the same relative opportunity on a market maintained by their cooperation.

"The eyes of the Nation are now focused on unprecedented efforts to legislate the country into prosperity," said Mr. Armstrong. "As growers and business men you are vitally interested in the new farm relief act, the industrial recovery act, and the railroad coordination act. These are all aimed to do what the citrus industry is endeavoring to do by voluntary cooperation. In other words, to stabilize our business, control surpluses and adjust supply to demand."

AVOCADO GROWERS TO HAVE A FIELD DAY

Avocado growers of this district are invited to attend the big field day program being arranged for Saturday, July 8, at the central plant and offices of the Calavo Growers' Exchange, located at 4803 Everett avenue, Los Angeles, in the Central Manufacturing District just north of Maywood and slightly west of Atlantic Boulevard. Both members and prospective participants in the industry's growing cooperative marketing program for next season are invited. Growers will be shown how their fruit is received, graded, packed, pre-cooled, shipped, and how the central office functions. An interesting program has been arranged.

When we're right we credit our judgment; when we're wrong we curse our luck.

BOWL CONCERTS TO START ON JULY 11

The twelfth annual season of "symphonies under the stars" will open Tuesday, July 11 in the Hollywood Bowl. Many innovations on this summer's programs are expected to prove especially attractive to music lovers who drive a considerable distance to attend these outdoor musical events.

Alfred Hertz, "father of the Bowl," will conduct the opening concert, to be followed the remainder of the first week by Nicholas Slonimsky, associate conductor of the Boston Symphony and one of the finest symphonic leaders in the world. The first ballet will be presented on Saturday, July 15, when Fanchon and Marco, nationally-known stage producers, will offer a colorful spectacle.

One of the innovations this year will be a series of "twilight" concerts late Sunday afternoons. These probably will start between 5 and 7 o'clock.

LIBRARY DIRECTORS WILL SERVE AGAIN

Mrs. Cecily A. Allen and E. D. Burbank have been reelected members of the Sierra Madre Library board for a period of three years dating from July 1. Notice of their election was certified to the City Council, which confirmed the appointments at the last meeting.

Plans for the summer were made at a recent meeting of the Sierra Madre Junior Woman's Club. A series of dances to be held at the Episcopal Parish House were arranged the first of which will be held on July 12.

Last weekend the club enjoyed a party at the Phillips Surfside home. At the close of the affair a lovely makeup kit was presented to Miss Cricket Calkin as a gift from the club.

KNOW YOUR OWN CALIFORNIA

Nearly a hundred pictures—and as many vacation ideas

—in this FREE BOOK!

With this book some quiet evening you can plan a grand vacation. As you browse through its 64 illustrated pages you'll come upon place after place you'd like to see.

And you can see them. For all this California wonderland of ours is only a few hours from home. Besides, rates are very low this year. (The book tells how to reach these places and what to see and gives all costs.)

Each of us, of course, has his own picture of the ideal vacation. Perhaps you long for lazy, restful days; perhaps adventure. Or exhilarating outdoor sports. Or a trip to new sights and scenic wonders.

Whatever it is, California has an answer. Did it ever occur to you that no other section in the world offers such concentrated variety?

The zestful mountain air of mile-high Tahoe; the thrilling views of Yosemite, Tioga Pass; Feather River; giants of the Redwood Empire; the romantic Gold Country. Sports at gay Del Monte; peaceful Carmel; the Big Trees and beach at Santa Cruz. Stanford and the University of California. Sacramento, our capital. Mt. Lassen and Mt. Shasta. San Francisco, America's coolest summer city, center of this great vacationland, a city of countless sights and new experiences.

These are but a few suggestions. May we send you this FREE book that tells of many others?

Veterans In 13-4 Victory At Alhambra

Pratt Hits Two Homers With Men On And Baffles Opposing Batsmen

Alhambra's Legionnaires fell before the superior hitting and fielding of the local soldiers on a sand lot diamond in Alhambra on Friday night. Outfitting the Alhambra's by a single point, the locals came away with the game by a score of 13-4, due to their ability to produce hits with men on bases, while Alhambra's two errors proved very costly. Pratt, on the mound for Sierra Madre, pitched a leisurely game but was invincible in the pinches. When his opponents threatened Pratt used the strike-out method, causing 16 batters to fan the air. In addition he batted out two home runs and a single, each wallop producing runs.

Sierra Madre started scoring in the third inning. Reavis flew out. Olsen singled. Burroughs singled but was forced out at second by Young who was safe on a fielder's choice. Harkness was safe on Gordon's error and Olsen scored. Pratt hit a home run scoring Young and Harkness ahead of him.

Two tallies were added in the sixth after two were out. Olsen grounded out to the pitcher and Burroughs flew out to third. Young singled and so did Harkness. Both runners scored when Pratt slapped a single into center. Welch flew to center for the third out.

Pickett walked in the sixth and scored on successive singles by Reavis and Hill.

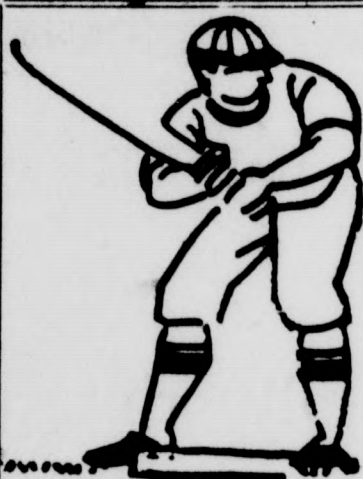

Six runs were pushed over in the eighth. Pickett was safe on Hagey's error and Evans was safe on Gordon's error. Reavis doubled, scoring both runners. Hill flew out to short. Burroughs flew out to second. Young singled, scoring Reavis and Harkness walked. Pratt batted the ball out into the darkness in deep left field for his second home run.

Stars Drop 1-0 Game In 12 Innings

Los Angeles Bankers Win Sensational Battle Of Moundmen

Sierra Madre's All-Stars dropped an exciting 12-inning tussle to the California Bankers on the school field Tuesday night by 1-0 score. It was a pitcher's battle, the locals registering five hits and the victorious visitors six hits. Both pitchers repeatedly maneuvered themselves out of tight places during the first 11 scoreless innings. Two of the visitors six hits were made by Collin Hill and Hay Hudson, local players, who substituted for tardy visiting players until their arrival. R. LaLone caught his first game with the All-Stars, turning in a fine performance.

Sierra Madre looked good for a run in the second when Ropp, first man up, singled, but the next three batters struck out. The Bankers had an almost similar experience in the third when Wheeler, first man up, singled. Two strike-outs and a pop fly, however, retired the side without the runner advancing.

In the ninth Hedlund, first man up, singled, but the next three batters popped up easy flies. The local fans were sure Sierra Madre would clean up in the ninth when Young singled and Pratt was safe on an error but Hedlund popped out to the pitcher, R. LaLone struck out and Wheeler grounded out to first.

The nearest the Bankers came to scoring before they put the only run across in the 12th inning, was in the fifth, when with one out, Pratt walked a batter. The next man up singled, sending him to third, but the next two batters fanned the air.

The only run of the game was scored by Burt, first man up in the twelfth. He doubled and scored on Bauer's sacrifice fly.

AMPLIFIER NOW AT THE BALL GAMES

Springing a surprise on the spectators at the baseball game last Friday night, Tom Tyler tried out his new public address system. The amplifier, built by Thatcher Jordan, radio technician of the Sierra Madre Furniture Co., will be used at all the ball games in this city.

Reading the advertisements of your home merchants in the Sierra Madre News is a money saving habit—good for you and good for the city you call home.

For the millions who love a clean, wholesome romance, "Adorable," starring Janet Gaynor and Henry Garat, to be shown this evening and Saturday at Dean's Arcadia Theatre, is the picture. A Clark and McCullough comedy, "Jitters the Butler," a novelty, "Melody Maker," and Paramount News are added attractions. An approved P.T.A. junior matinee will be shown at 2 p.m. Saturday together with the seventh chapter of "The Last Frontier."

"The Eagle and the Hawk," scheduled for Sunday and Monday, July 2 and 3, is a story of two aviators, one a heartless killer, who can't fly, and the other a dauntless flier, who can't kill. In the cast are Fredric March, Cary Grant, Carole Lombard and Jack Oakie. Completing the program for these evenings are Paramount Screen Souvenirs; a comedy, "The Rumor," and news events.

"International House," a picture that is different, is to be presented next Tuesday and Wednesday. The cast includes many celebrities, among who are Peggy Hopkins Joyce, Rudy Vallee, Bela Lugosi, Baby Rose Marie, Sari Maritza, Cab Calloway and his orchestra. A coloritone revue, "Hollywood Premier," a Taxi Boys comedy, "Bring 'em Back a Wife," and Fox Movietone News are added to the bill. There will be continuous performance on the Fourth from 5 until 11 p.m. "King Kong," R.K.O.'s miracle movie, will come to the theatre next Thursday.

Tea Room To Occupy The Wright Home

La Casa Vieja Tea Room will open next Wednesday, June 5, at 266 East Montecito avenue, under the management of Mrs. William R. Lees. The tea room, given the romantic Spanish name of La Casa Vieja, which means "The Old Home," is the picturesque home of Mrs. Jessica H. Wright. A most clever color scheme of yellow and henna is being carried throughout the home. Yellow curtains, chair backs, table cloths, henna dishes and trimmings, will contribute a gay, but restful setting for luncheon and dinner guests. Large cool spacious screened porches on the second and first floor afford a beautiful view of the valley and mountains for the diners.

The home has been remodeled and renovated without losing the charm of the "old home." Rooms and porches for private card parties and dinners are available. Twenty-seven years' growth of trees and shrubbery and large, well-kept lawns transport visitors from the everyday bustle of life. For those so desiring, luncheon and dinner will be served in the gardens.

The splendid lunches and dinners of Mrs. William Lees need no introduction. Her many years service to local clubs and the fame of her chicken pies has won much praise for her culinary art. The annual Wistaria Fete has become almost as well known for Mrs. Lees' chicken dinners as for its famous vine.

Dinner will be served only to those making reservations for the opening next Wednesday. Table service will be given between 5 and 8 p.m. Luncheons will be served daily from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and dinner from 5 to 7 p.m. Reservations are preferred for all luncheons, dinners, bridge parties and teas.

Reservations for over fifty persons have been made for July 6 for the monthly dinner and meeting for the Southern Counties Gas company employees.

Bible School Will Enter New Courses After The Fourth

In order to allow parents to plan a vacation over the Fourth of July the Daily Vacation Bible School, now in session at Bethany Church, will not meet on Monday and Tuesday, July 3 and 4.

All who could not attend the previous sessions are urged to be present next Wednesday. Classes for all ages from pre-school to adult are arranged. All are welcome.
